The 15th Annual North Alabama Industrial Development Conference

Navigating the Winds of Change

August 24 and 25, 2010
The Westin, Huntsville, Alabama

NORTH ALABAMA
INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT ASSOCIATION

North Alabama Industrial Development Conference

The Fifteenth Annual North Alabama Industrial Development Conference is brought to you by the North Alabama Industrial Development Association (NAIDA), TVA, the North Alabama electric power distributors and the North Alabama economic development organizations.

The Conference was developed to help strengthen the skills of community leaders in marketing their community to industrial prospects. The conference also strives to provide valuable information from well-known experts in the field of economic development.

Featured Speakers

John Horack, Ph.D., Vice President of Research, The University of Alabama in Huntsville. Dr. Horack was the former Director, Science and Mission Systems Office at NASA Marshall Space Flight Center.

Dr. Horack will be presenting "Nothing is Easy Anymore" - Today's Complex Problems and the Need for a 'Team North Alabama' Approach.

John Krug, Vice President, Development Advisors, LLC specializing in Location Analysis, Site Location Incentives Negotiations, and is a Commercial Real Estate Advisor. Mr. Krug was formerly Vice President at the Metro Orlando Economic Development Commission.

Sharon McKee, Marketing Coordinator with S&ME, a geotechnical and environmental engineering firm. She has worked in the area of economic development for the past twenty years in both the public and private sector, working with communities on planning and implementing community development projects. She has assisted many communities by helping them to secure millions of dollars in federal, state, and private sector funding to advance projects that have improved the quality of life in both metropolitan and rural communities. Ms. McKee will be speaking on Brownfield Redevelopment Financing.
